

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

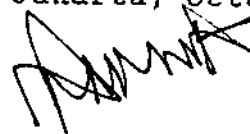

First of all, I wish to thank Allah for his blessing that I could finish this study.

Secondly, I would like to extend my gratitude to DR. M.D. Soetisna MBA and Mr. Son Diamar Ph.D as the advisors who provided me with advices and guidances to finalize the study.

I would also like to thank Mr. Darmawan Kusnadi, as Finance and Accounting Manager of PT. Alumindo Perkasa who gave me the opportunity to discuss the financial statement of the company. This was possible with the help from my colleagues at Deutsche Bank, Jakarta Branch who in charge for handling the accounts of the company.

Last but not least, I must express deep appreciation to my wife and family for their support which greatly eased the burden I had to carry.
