First and foremost, the writer would like to thank God for his blessing and help so that this thesis has been completed. I gratefully acknowledge the valuable contribution, advice and assistance from my two advisors, Dr. Erman Munzir, Ph.D. and Dr. Singgih Riphata, Ph.D. I also thank them very much for their support and guidance, without which I would not be able to complete this thesis.

My sincere thanks go to all lecturers at the University of IEU for whom I have learned much about business management. My special thanks are also addressed to the members of the management staff of the IEU in providing good environment for my study and for the preparation of this thesis.

My thanks and appreciation are directed to the Management of ABC Bank for giving me permission and opportunity to study their cases and for their highly professional views which have helped me shape the contents of this thesis.

Finally, I would like to express my profound gratitude to my parents, colleagues, and others who have, one way or another, contributed their mental support and motivation throughout my study, so this thesis could be smoothly completed.
