This writing is prepared as a thesis for "IEU Institute of Management". Although this paper was written by the writer alone, but many people have been involved in its preparation directly or indirectly. However, if there are oversights or deficiencies exist in this paper, ofcourse they are wholly and solely my own faults and my own responsibility accordingly.

The writer, via this opportunity would like to express here his sincere thanks and highest appreciation to all of you mentioned below :

Messrs. : DR. MD. Soetisna, MBA. and DR. Singgih Riphath, MA. for your encouragement and valuable guidance given to me at the completion of this paper.

Messrs. : President, The Dean and all Staff of IEU Institute of Management, Jakarta, from whom I have learned a lot about Business Management.

Mr. President Director of PT. Titis Sampurna and all his Management Staff who have rendered to me all necessary data and required information as the basic materials for this paper.

Finally, my deepest gratitude goes to my wife, my son and my daughter, for their understanding in spending many nights and weekends without their father at their side.
