

ABSTRACT

The Influrnce of Environmental Performance, Profitability, and Debt Use Policy on Firm Value (Case Study On Companies Listed on Indonesia Stock Exchange and PROPER Period 2014-2016)

By :
Naning Putri Utami
putrinaning1995@gmail.com

Supervisor:
Adrie Putra, SE, MM

The value of firm is the goal of every company of various forms of industry. It is strongly influenced by the environmental performance and financial performance of the company. So the purpose of this study to provide empirical evidence of the influence of environmental performance (PROPER), profitability (NPM), and debt use policy (DER) as an independent variable to the dependent variable of firm value

The sample used is 62 companies with 186 data observer and using secondary data. The method of analysis used is multiple linear regression analysis, with the result of significance value of environmental performance of 0.220, profitability of 0.000, and the policy of debt usage of 0.793

This research proves that profitability have significant influence to firm value, while environment performance variable and debt usage policy have no significant effect to company value at company which listed in Bursa Efek Indonesia and PROPER consistently period 2014-2016

Keywords: Environmental Performance, Profitability, Debt Use Policy, Firm Value, PROPER, NPM, dan DER