ABSTRACT

WEMAY MARSELLA - Effect of Service Quality and Brand Image on Purchasing Decisions Through Interest in Buying Indosat Cards (Case Study in Tanjung Duren Region, West Jakarta).

This research is motivated by the growing trend of cellular cards in the community with the advantages of each cellular card. But the most important thing in this research is to find out how much influence the quality of service and brand image has on purchasing decisions through interest in buying Indosat cards. The independent variable consists of service quality and Brand Image, the dependent variable consists of Purchasing Decisions and the intervening variable consists of Buying Interests. Data analysis techniques use Path Analysis.

This sampling method uses purposive sampling by determining the desired sample. With the population in this study were all Indosat card subscribers by filling out questionnaires taken as many as 170 respondents, namely all Indosat card customers in Tanjung Duren, West Jakarta.

Based on the results of the study it can be concluded that the quality of service and Brand Image has a positive and significant effect on Purchasing Interests and Purchasing Decisions even though many cellular cards have emerged but Indosat cards are still the choice of many consumers.
