

ABSTRACT

MARICKY. Applying Accounting Based Computerized to UKM Study Case On Shop Shoe Shoepaholic (under the supervision of Darmansyah).

By looking at the reality in which UKM, especially in the case study Shop Shoe Shoepaholic where not apply to financial accounting for lack of knowing the importance of the application of financial accounting in this case study aims to implement a computerized order-based accounting UKM Shop Shoe Shoepaholic can make decisions based on accounting information.

At first is knowing the business processes that occur in UKM Shop Shoe Shoepaholic then describe it in the form of a flowchart. Then, through a process of interviews and observations used data from UKM Shop Shoe Shoepaholic then fill the data into an excel table accounting system that generates cash flow statements, income statement and balance sheet can provide accounting information for UKM owners Shop Shoe Shoepaholic in decision making.