

ABSTRACT

MARTHA DEBORAH SILAEN, The influence of Good Corporate Governance and the Level of Financial disclosure Statements with respect to the value of a company by the Company's Performance as an intervening variable in the Textile and Garment Industry in IDX 2011-2013. (led by Mr. Adrie Putra).

The objectives of this research is to determine the influence of Good Corporate Governance and the Level of Financial disclosure Statements with respect to the value of a company by the Company's Performance as an intervening variable in the Textile and Garment Industry

Sampling techniques in this research using purposive sampling. The sample used in this study were 12 companies in the textile and garment industry which listed in Indonesia Stock Exchange in 2011-2013. This test uses Path Analysis.

The results of this research are of good corporate governance significant negative influence on the performance of the company, the level of disclosure of financial statements significant negative influence on the performance of the company, good corporate governance significant positive influence on the value of the company, the level of disclosure of financial statements significant positive influence on the value of the company, and the company's performance influential not significant positive on the value of company.

Keywords: Good Corporate Governance, The Level of Financial Statement Disclosure, The Performance of The Company, The Value of The Company.