

ABSTRACT

SILVIA. Applying System Information of Accounting Based Computerized to UKM Case Study At Bengkel Global Motor (under the supervision of Darmansyah).

By looking at the current reality in which UKM, especially in the case study Bengkel Global Motor has not been recording on a computer-based information systems in financial accounting for lack of knowing the importance of the application of financial accounting in this case study aims to implement a computerized accounting, UKM Bengkel Global Motor can make decisions based on financial statement produced.

Initially the process is knowing the business processes that occur in UKM Bengkel Global Motor then describe it in the form of a flowchart. Then, the results of the interview and observations and data collection from UKM Bengkel Global Motor then fill the data into an excel table accounting system that produce financial statements such as balance sheet and income statement so as to provide accounting information for owner of UKM Bengkel Global Motor in decision making.